Narcotics Agents Nab Dope Dealer At DC Drive-Inn

A 21-year-old dope peddler, who confessed he had been on the "stuff" since he was 14, was arrested by county agents at the Colonial Drive-Inn Tuesday night as he was caught in a rendezvous "trap" with a narcotics investigator.

Booked on seven counts of transportation and sale of narcotics was Alfred Remo, alias Remo Lopez, a national Guardsman employed as a utility worker at the Olympic Club gun site off Skyline boulevard.

Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage and A. L. Lamport, county investigator, took Remo into custody as the suspect was handing over a quantity of marijuana to an unidentified county narcotics agent.

The agent "set up" Remo for the arrest after a three-weeks investigation, triggered by information supplied by a 17-year-old Daly City student. The informer notified the district attorney's office when Remo offered to supply him with marijuana. The agent made two previous purchases from Remo before closing in with official assistance here Tuesday.

Savage said the peddler admitted he had been operating for some time in this area, with most of his "customers" Daly City high school students.

Remo was reported as saying that he obtained the marijuana in the Fillmore district. Savage revealed that the suspect had no previous narcotics arrests, although he admitted serving "time" at the Log Cabin correction home.

Remo, whose address is 150 Gambier street, was arraigned in municipal court, South San Francisco, this Thursday morning. Two of the seven counts against him were for sale of narcotics to minors.

Cops Think Hit-Runner 'Hopped-Up'

Daly City police halted a bleary-eyed San Francisco teamster in the wee hours of Tuesday morning, booking him for hit-run driving, possession of a loaded rifle, driving with a suspended license, and suspicion of operating a vehicle while under the influence of narcotics and possession of the same.

Released on $500 bail was Sam Bigone, 26, who listed his address as 560 Rhode Island street. His "weaving" sedan was stopped at 87th and Southgate by Officer Frank Murray.

The policeman got on Bigone's trail at 2:30 a.m. when another driver reported he had just seen a sedan clobben two parked cars about 100 feet north of Parkview on Mission street.

Murray took off and soon spotted the teamster's car going onto 87th from Larchmont drive.

Bigone, staggering as he alighted from the vehicle, said he couldn't remember hitting another car. He also couldn't account for fresh paint on his damaged rear fender.

In the car, Murray found a .25 caliber rifle and five shells. Bigone also had in his possession several nembutal, empirin, benzedrine and amphetamine pills—authorized only by doctor's prescription.

Police Capt. Roy Beecher said the teamster showed prescriptions for some of the pills, for an alleged asthmatic condition, but "there is some doubt on the other pills."

Results of a blood test will determine if there is sufficient evidence for the district attorney to consider the narcotics charges—illegal possession and driving while under the influence of drugs.

Bigone is on probation from the county sheriff's office. He was arrested in Daly City befor for burglary at Westmoor high school.

The teamster has a restricted driving license because of his occupation. His regular license was suspended because of an earlier accident.

The two rammed cars sustained minor fender damage.

The Town Record

By MONTE DAYTON

A woman from Westlake phoned this office Thursday, asked if Westlake was now a part of 'Pacifica' in light of the successful incorporation election on the Coastside last week.

That March 22 quake may have been bad, but it didn't shake Westlake over the Daly City boundaries.

Daly City had an overflow crowd of tipplers Tuesday, as the beer and liquor dispensaries in S. F. were closed because of the election.

One liquor store proprietor reported 169 sales during the day alone, his all-time record for Tuesday.

Some of the imbibers who came "out to the country" spent the day here and overdid it. Needless to say, they wound up on that select registry at the DC police department.

Trick or Treating on Halloween is becoming so reserved that the kids are all saying "thank you' after receipt of their loot.

One resident said that he took a count, and the "thank yous" for goods received was 100 per cent.

Westlake Improvement association officials have smilingly admitted that they stayed up until 3 a.m. preparing their "pitch" for the governor, who they were to meet later that day on the traffic signal problem.

Each director had his cue on when to exchange civilities with the guy, right down to the final parting remark.

Wood Water Tank Woes —City Awaits Bug Count

Daly City's wooden water tank travails, a pestiferous problem both literally and figuratively, has engineers perplexed again this week.

Three months ago the city purchased a new 50,000 gallon wooden water tank, after having earlier returned an unused 30,000 gallon wooden wine tank that repeatedly failed to meet health department standards after chemical tests for bacteria.

The second tank, to be used as a stand-by reservoir in Westlake west of Skyline boulevard, was all installed and ready for use last month.

As required by law, a series of bacteriological tests were started. The tank, to be acceptfor use, must contain less than 2.2 count of B Coli, a bacteria which may indicate the presence of typhus.

Testing, 1, 2, 3

First test: 9.2 count. Second: 5.2 count. Third: 16 count.

Engineers and chemists are in a dither. The spanking new redwood tank, purchased from Sante Fe Tank Co. for $7930, should work . . . but it won't hold water. At least not water that's fit for drinking under health standards.

Public Works Director Otis Calhoun said the tank was to be chlorinated again yesterday. "This should do it this time," he said. "We can't figure out why the count is above the maximum. The chemists tells us it may have something to do with a chemical reaction created when redwood comes up against chlorine."

Calhoun said the water supply had been checked before it entered the tank, eliminating the chance that the bacteria may be in the water before it reaches the cistern.

5 Breathless Days

The engineer said it would be five days before samples of the water could be tested again for bacteria count. He explained that the presence of a comparatively high bacteria count does not necessarily indicate that there are dangerous organisms in the water. The 2.2 standards are maintained just to be safe. "It's like saying some peas are black. But not all black round objects are peas," he explained.

The trouble all started after the March 22 earthquake, when Daly City's giant Westlake reservoir was cracked, necessitating purchase of a standby tank while the well was being drained and repaired.

The problem is, before they can fix the big tank, they've got to find a little one that will hold "clean" water.

And to think, some people eat their salad and soup out of wooden bowls. Daly City's experiences may do wonders for the ceramics business.

WIA Says 'All-Out' On Signals

Their recent meet with Gov. Goodwin Knight "productive," Westlake Improvement Association directors Monday night confirmed that they would accept "nothing less than what we want" at the risky Westmoor and Westridge intersections with Skyline.

Chairman Ed Murphy's joint traffic committee will meet again November 18. A new report from the state division of highways, promised by Knight, should be in their hands by that time.

Another Trip?

The board passed Murphy's motion that a trip to Sacramento, expenses defrayed by the association, would result if state officials "fail to respond in reasonable time."

After many complaints from the sparce audience, directors authorized a letter to the police department for special officers to be detailed to duty at the two intersections during to-and-from school hours. Also passed was a letter to both Daly City school districts, asking that busing of students across Skyline continue until

STORE CLERK ARRESTED ON THEFT CHARGE

A private detective concluded a lengthy investigation of 'serious inventory losses" at Spotlite Market last Friday when he caught a receiving clerk at the store in the act of taking home a case of coffee.

Arrested by Daly City police on complaint of store owner George Glass was John Reed, 39, who had been employed by the supermarket since it opened a year ago.

Reed, who lives at 4329 25th street, San Francisco, was charged with petty theft. He was released on $250 bond to make an appearance in court next Tuesday.

Clayton Bendall, hired by Glass to get to the bottom of recent inventory losses, nabbed Reed as the latter was putting the case of coffee in his car.

According to Police Captain Roy Beecher, Reed admitted he had stolen some 9 cases of coffee and 120 cartons of cigarettes from the market. The suspect also revealed that he had sold the same in the Filmore and Turk districts of San Fracisco.

Store owner Glass believes the charges against Reed will amount to more than petty

JESD Board Pushes Four School Sites

After many red-tape delays and frustrations, elementary school trustees Wednesday night set the wheels in motion for three new sites and announced that a fourth deal with builder Henry Doelger for the debated Westlake Basin site was imminent.

By unanimous vote (only Michael Callan was missing), the board moved to ask the state for approval on three K-6 sites on the Doelger land south of Westmoor High and funds for purchase of the same.

According to Asst. Supt. David Shapiro, Doelger on Tuesday said he was willing to sell 7.5 acres of his 18.6 acre basin land to the school district at the appraisal price. This move, plus the city council's willingness to donate 6.4 acres of Westlake park for the basin school recreation area on a joint-use basis, will allow the district to request state funds for the site.

If Doelger okays the sale of the 7.5 acres Monday, the school district will have almost 14 acres for its K-6 school. Doelger would still have 11 acres left on the basin property, which he is considering selling to parochial school officials.

The school district, unable to acquire the full basin acreage from Doelger, many months ago moved to condemn the property through the courts. Monday's expected settlement is reported satisfactory to all three parties.

The three other Doelger owned sites south of Westmoor High east of Skyline will all be K-6 schools. Two of them, as proposed for state acceptance, are located together on a two-level basis, covering some 23.5 acres. These will replace the former Abe Lincoln site, west of Skyline, which was ruled out due to its location in the line of the earthquake fault.

The third site, south of the two schools, was designated Portola school Wednesday after trustees considered many names of famous Americans.

Shapiro repeated earlier statements that a record-breaking, "no-tax-hike" bond election will be necessary early next year if the district is to meet its site and building projections for an anticipated en-

$5½ Million Job

OK DUE TUESDAY ON CALLAN PROJECT

Caesar-Callan Company's $5½ million apartment project won tentative OK of the city council Wednesday, as variances for off-street parking and setbacks were approved and preliminary proceedings launched for forming a special tax assessment district to construct streets and storm drains.

After a three-hour session with Thomas Callan Jr., Architect Warren Pollock and planning consultant Ed Lee, during which the council questioned the developers on all phases of the project, the council expressed accord with the mammoth project.

The development, which will contain 381 apartments, will be located between 89th and 91st, Edgeworth and Sullivan streets, just west of Junipero Serra boulevard.

Chief item on the agenda was a $¼ million assessment district, which may involve several adjacent property owners.

Twelve of the property owners were on hand to question the builder about their involvement in the project, but councilmen said they would not know extent of the district until final boundaries were drawn up.

Major Tax Payer

The Caesar-Callan firm will be the major taxpayer in the assessment district, and as such, will have the majority vote in creating the district.

Callan agreed that his firm would pay "incidental" expenses of preliminary engineering on the improvements district, if:

1.—The city did not enlarge the boundaries appreciably, thereby making Callan a minority owner. 2.—If the city did not uphold a minority protest on creation of the assessment district.

Width of streets in the apartment area was another central issue, with the council finally agreeing that 60-foot right of way, with 36 feet distance curb to curb, would be adequate. The streets would provide for angle parking.

Variances OK

Variances sought by the firm include a reduction in off-street parking requirements from one garage per living unit to 78 garages for every 100 units.

Councilmen approved variances from the minimum 15-foot sidewalk setback, with some changes. The Callan firm had sought to reduce setback to 2' 6" at one point. This was increased to 5'. The 10' setbacks in other locations were not opposed.

The variances are scheduled for final approval at the council regular meeting next Tuesday (the regular Monday date has been cancelled because of the holiday).

Callan has indicated that with final approval on the variances, plans can be completed and work started within a few weeks. Some of the apartments are expected to be ready for occupancy next spring.

October Building 2nd High

Building activity in Daly City for October hit a total of $633,986, second highest for the year, according to the office of building inspector George Hopman.

Bulk of the valuation came from new dwellings, 64, for a total of $484,496.

The October total was exceeded this year only by the record September building volume of $1,149,838.

In addition to dwellings, breakdown for October building in other categories was: dwelling alterations, 42, $66,-278; commercial, 1, $15,000; commercial alterations, 4, $26,-650; church, 1, $40,000; signs, 3, $560.

The total October permits for new dwellings, 64, has been exceeded only twice in 1957—September, 85; April, 80.

Man Held As Drunk In DC School Yard

A 31-year-old Daly City bus driver, James Halloran, of 499 Crocker avenue, was arrested for drunkeness Monday afternoon when police found him "staggering around" the Our Lady of Perpetual Help school yard.

He was released on $100 bond, officers reported.

'Minority' Urges City Drop SM Aid

Long delay on acquisition of the Westlake library site and the proposed split with the county library system were the chief topics Wednesday as the council met in special session with library commissioners for the first time in more than a year.

Dr. Lionel Farber, commissioner, objected strongly to the fact that apparently the library site transaction had been "tied up" with the planning commission, although the city has allocated the $10,000 for the land on Southgate and owner Henry Doelger has the deed prepared.

The urgency for obtaining the Westlake library site was emphasized by City Manager Howard Stites, who said that the small branch library on Park Plaza drive already has a circulation which exceeds that at the Daly City main library, although the branch only has about one-tenth the space and a much smaller number of books.

Not Before Planners

Stites said that the library site itself was not being considered by the planners, but an adjoining piece of property which Doelger seeks to reclassify from R-1 to R-3. Since there have been some protests on the rezoning, the library site transaction has been held up pending decision by planners on the adjoining parcel.

Daly City has approximately one-half library book per person, one of the lowest figures in the state, according to figures submitted to the council Wednesday by the library commission.

There are .52 per cent books per person in Daly City, as compared with figures for other Peninsula cities: Burlingame, five books per person; Palo Alto, 2.9; Redwood City, 1.7; San Bruno, 1.1; South San Francisco, 1.3; and San Mateo, 1.5.

The only city shown with a book ratio close to Daly City's was Hayward, with .58.

Of the cities shown, Daly City also showed the lowest book stock, with 15,315 volumes. Second lowest city was San Bruno with 25,248. Daly City was also lowest in total library budget and total book budget.

Nobody knew why it would affect the sale of the land to the city but City Attorney Paul

Bank Of America Sends $515,000 To Xmas Clubbers

Santa's going to need more reindeer plus a trailer-sled to tote his gifts this year if Bank of America's 1957 Christmas Club statewide totals are any indication of the shopping spree to come.

In Daly City and Colma, Branch Managers Louis Pisani, J. Ferrari and D. Franco said checks totalling $515,000 will be mailed November 15 to 3809 local Christmas Club savers.

With $62,000,000 in 516,000 accounts throughout the state, never have so many Californians saved so much toward a merry, bill-free Christmas, Pisani said.

The statewide totals show an increase of $8,700,000 and 94,-000 more accounts than last year and are the highest since Bank of America started its Christmas savings program almost a quarter century ago.

The Christmas Club, designed to help depositors put aside funds for the holidays, Pisani added, also is used by some as a source of ready cash for winter vacations or end-of-year expenses such as insurance and tax payments.

2000 ATTEND BIG WESTLAKE FESTIVITIES

Two thousand costumed youngsters converged on Westlake Shopping Center Thursday for the annual Westlake Improvement association Halloween party.

It was almost all-quiet on the Daly City-Broadmoor Halloween front last week. Only thing that concerned police was a semi-tame vegetable "war" about 8 o'clock at Westlake park. Some 250 teenagers, meaning no harm and "just for kicks," plastered one another with ripe weapons. The gendarmes kept watch until the celebrants left for other pastures. Nobody got hurt.

A total of 400 prizes were awarded, in addition to chocolate bars and ice cream which were served to all the youngsters.

Grand prize winners, in order, were: Janice Cabrol, 245 Wilshire avenue; Stacey Meister, 190 Northgate avenue; Joseph La Bruzzo, 118 Morningside drive; Carl Ledbetter, 95 Windsor drive.

General chairman was Rose

DC-Colma 'Crusade' $ Mount

A determined force of United Crusade volunteers in the Daly City-Colma residential area are on their way to a Bay Area record for percentage of donations.

Totals this week—still unofficial—found the DC-Colma residential donations 89 percent over the goal set here. Some $3399.89 has been collected. Original goal was $1798.

With Crusade tabulations still coming in, campaign headquarters reports that the DC-Colma mark could be the best in the Bay Area, determined by the size of the city.

Chairman for the DC-Colma Crusade push is Mrs. Meredith Orloff. Key district chairmen are: Mrs. Jack Hurt, Westlake; Mrs. Albert Brawley, DC, east of Junipero Serra; Mrs. John Crofton, Garden Village and Broadmoor, and Mrs. Connie Nofziger, Colma.

More than 400 women in the greater Daly City area have championed the United Crusade appeal.

"We would like to thank each of them personally," commented the jubilant Mrs. Orloff.

rollment of 10,807 students by 1962.

The district, with only $1 million left from its last bond issue, (a $2.5 million affair), has immediate need of funds for five additional sites.

Shapiro urged trustees to decide by their next meeting, November 20, whether to project three or five years on the bond issue.

The special election, which could be called in 55 days, would bring the district up to its bonding limti, thus entitling it to additional state aid.

The fuss with San Francisco over the 10-acre Pershing site should be settled at the State Allocations Board meeting November 13 in Sacramento. The neighboring officials have been given more time to present new evidence in their protest of the JESD move for 3 acres in SF territory.

Trustees also discussed a letter to the Zita Corporation for an agreement of the three 10-acre sites in the St. Francis Heights subdivision. The agreement hinges on the state approval of the sites and the stipulation that the subdividers will build no more than their proposed 1600 homes in the area.

The board delayed discussion of the basin site negotiations until the final minutes of their 4½ hour session Monday night. Supt. H. Z. Weibel and Shapiro said they did so because of the many "ramifications" involved in dealing with Doelger on the site. These included the still undecided problem of the right of way on White street and the access route for Benjamin Franklin students by the proposed bowling alley. Doelger officials are willing to grant the right-of-way for students, but the board, which protested the bowling alley's liquor license, has decided to inspect the area to decide if the proposal is reasonable.

Jeff 'Pioneer' Granted Leave For Europe Trip

Joseph D. Vollbrecht, a pioneer teacher in Jefferson High school science department, has been granted sabbatical leave for the 1958-59 school year to observe science teaching and curricula in German schools.

Vollbrecht plans to do graduate work at the University of Munich or at other universities in Western Germany.

The board of trustees, in approving the special leave, cited Vollbrecht for "outstanding service to the high school district."

Hupf said he would investigate.

The matter of financing the new Westlake library, cost for which has been estimated at $100,000, was also discussed but as commissioner Frank De Martini commented, "Let's face it, we just don't have the money."

Sales Tax Again

Councilman Del Wilson said he was going to make a motion in February to put the sales tax on the April ballot, and that if successful, this would provide the city with necessary revenue.

Also considered was the lease-purchase plan, the retaining of an outside lending organization to do the work, and a proposition that the city supply the land and allow the county to construct the building.

That brought up the topic of abandoning the county library service now given the city, discussed by the council last month.

Dr. Farber maintained that, "we should get our new building up before we abandon the county so we can be prepared to go on our own."

Presenting what she termed the commission's minority stand on the issue was Mrs. Grace Woods, who said that Daly City turns over some $33,000 to the county from the 10-cent library tax every year, but receives far less than this in actual value of goods and services.

One of the services provided by the county, she said, is making available 7755 volumes from the Redwood City office. For $10,000, approximately the amount paid for this service, the city could buy 4000 of its own books every year, she added.

Few New Titles

She also pointed out that of 24,000 new books added by the county this year, there were only 2200 new titles, indicating that there is a great deal of duplication in the county's stacks.

"We added 2400 books in Daly City," she continued, "and got 1500 new titles, almost as many as the county."

Mrs. Woods said Daly City was the only city in the county, with the exception of Menlo Park, which still had a joint arrangement with the county.

Menlo Park, however, with a $13,000 city library budget, has access to 18,000 county volumes and pays the same 10-cent tax as Daly City, Mrs. Woods asserted.

Councilmen also noted a letter from Aida Larsen, a professional librarian, expressing opposition to abandoning the county set-up.

Early Sanskrit writings and a papyrus dating from about 1500 B.C. speak of coriander seeds.

"the traffic hazards at Westmoor and Westridge are eliminated or reduced."

Murphy reminded "We are going all-out for what we want. We will get an underpass at Westridge and a diamond-cloverleaf pattern at Westmoor ...but only if we keep up the fight. If we sit around and just talk, nothing will be done."

Investigate Buses

Hartley Appleton, association attorney and elementary school board chairman, said he would investigate immediately a report that some children have been left off school buses at Skyline and had to walk across the dangerous highway.

In another key matter Monday, at Appleton's suggestion, the association moved to contact the city manager and Doelger officials to settle the "long-delayed" Ocean Shore "hump" problem on South Mayfair between Elmwood and Windsor.

Appleton said he wondered why the city hadn't tried to condemn the strip of land—a legitimate course—for a right of way. The "hump" has been stalemated for some three years. Latest drawback is an appeal filed by the Ocean Shore Railway on the decision against the railroad in favor of Doelger and the city. Doelger is reluctant to negotiate on the hump with the city and school district until the litigation is settled.

Councilman Del Wilson said he would present the association's request at this week's council meeting. Delegated to join him were Murphy and Charles Santuccio.

Request Ordinance

Directors Monday also resolved to confer with city officials to establish a city ordinance on residential zoning, specifically for designation of back yard setbacks and distances between houses. Appleton urged the move, citing the fact that no such ordinance exists and the association only has its deed specifications to use as authority in such matters.

Cass Norton, association president, reminded that annual election for new directors will be held on December 2 at the Westlake Clubhouse, 95 South Mayfair. Named to the nominating committee were Mrs. Veronica Galvin, Sig Adler, Nat Gaggero, Frank Hagerty, Walt Woodall and Tony Lastelli.

The board approved room additions at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Leventhal, 78 Terrace avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Green, 168 Westdale avenue. In addition, a variance for construction of a detached arbor was granted to Dr. Carlos E. Kaufeldt, 638 Stoneyford drive.

Bartender Cited After' Drag Race' Causes Accident

An alleged drag race between two cars on Mission street Wednesday ended with the arrest of one of the participants and damage to three cars.

Issued a warrant on a charge of reckless driving was Gerald V. Powers, 28, a bartender, who lives at 329 Winchester street.

Powers said he was driving south on Mission in front of War Memorial building when another driver waved for his attention. The bartender said the "distraction" caused his car to ram two others and a parking meter in front of 6654 Mission.

Cut and bruised badly, Powers was semi-conscious as he staggered from the car. He was treated and released at Junipero Serra hospital.

Three witnesses said Powers' and another car appeared to be racing "at speeds up to 60 mph" down Mission.

The two cars clobbered are owned by Genoeffa Giusto, San Francisco, and Maryann Eberle, 353 2nd avenue, Colma.

Judeans Get Four-Acre Temple Site

Congregation Temple Judea, enthused by the purchase of a four-acre site on Stanley drive in San Francisco, this week embarked full speed on a drive for new members.

The membership committee, headed by Dr. Sanford A. Marcus, is canvassing the Parkmerced, Stonestown, Lakeshore and St. Francis Woods areas.

All persons interested in joining the Temple group should contact the office, PL 5-6362.

The Sisterhood will present its Salad Bar Luncheon next Tuesday at noon, with guest speaker C. Levyof, Far West Surveys, discussing "The Language of Cooking."

The Temple Men's Club will honor Rabbi Irving F. Reichert on Wednesday evening, November 13, 7 o'clock, at the Stonestown YMCA.

'Customer' Swipes Cigarette Machine At Gas Station

Daly City police are looking for a "heavy smoker" today, following a theft reported Tuesday by Hayden Hamilton, owner of the service station at 2428 Junipero Serra boulevard.

Hamilton said a "customer" toted off his outside cigarette machine sometime between 7:30 a.m. and 2 in the afternoon.

The missing machine is five feet high and 22 inches wide. It is valued at $190, cigarettes included.

Shoplifting Suspect Pleads 'Not Guilty'

Robert Kelly, 47, one of three persons arrested for shoplifting at Sprouse Reitz store on Mission, was held over for jury trial November 21, following his "not guilty" plea in municipal court this Thursday.

Kelly's companions, Mardi Scott, 19, and George Greathouse, 32, who also live at the same Turk street hotel, each forfeited $250 bail by not appearing.

In another disposition, Ed Contreras, 24, a market worker of San Francisco, was sentenced to 10 days in jail or $75 fine (with 15 days to pay) on a drunk arrest near Mussel Rock.

Dan Hermosillo scooted 63 yards on an end sweep to give Colma's seventh grade footballers a 6-6 tie with Burlingame at Trojan Field last week.

The standoff gave Tom Pollicita's locals a 3-2-1 season mark. South City is the next foe for the Colmans, this week.

Colma almost had the game won against Burlingame on a penalty-erased 78-yard punt runback by fleet Floyd Byrum.

Pollicita praised the work of Hermosillo and Byrum, and Mike DeBernardi, Jim Fife, Dan Gallegos, Charles Bricker, Carl Carpenter, Ernie Montoya, Lonny Goodrich and Walter Pickering.

Colma players include Brian Markus, Wayne Stoller, Sam Hermosillo, Dennis Lewis, Darryll Crist, James Waller, Mario Mora, Ronald Cook, Robert Rasmussen, Dennis Bottaro, DuWayne Everett, James Rezendes, Robert Silber, Richard Vaznaugh, Michael Guillory and Ronald Sampino.

The Trojans hold wins over Burlingame, 15-0; Ben Franklin, 15-0, and South City, 8-6. They lost twice to Millbrae, 6-0 and 12-6.

One of the main sideliners at Colma is Dr. B. W. Gerdes, school principal and a former bridder himself.

THE DECISION IS ALREADY MADE

A report submitted to county supervisors Tuesday recommended that the county civil service commission be stripped of its independent, rule-making authority and that the supervisors be given veto power over salary schedules adopted by the commission.

These same recommendations, submitted by the professional research firm of Louis J. Kroeger & Associates, are precisely the proposals that voters of the county unanimously rejected in amendment form at the general election last June.

The changes, among many recommended in the Kroeger report to revamp civil service and personnel management in the county, would have the effect of making the civil service commission merely a recommending body with no policy-making powers and no control over hiring and firing.

Since Kroeger's recommendations virtually repeat the language of propositions A and B which were defeated at the last election, it would be foolhardy for supervisors to now accept this policy and completely ignore the will of the electorate.

Kroeger maintains that "there should be clear legal provisions by which the board of supervisors, as the body directly answerable to the people, has the responsibility and authority to decide finally on basic personnel policy issues."

This same theory could apply to planning, library, parks and other matters. And in all applications we believe the theory is completely erroneous.

In personnel matters it is even more important that initially decisions be removed from whim of the supervisors. Placing complete control of civil service in the hands of supervisors would only serve to foster political patronage and defeat the intent of civil service.

The voters of San Mateo county have already made clear their sentiments. It should not be difficult for the supervisors to make their decision accordingly.

Letters To The Editor

Reader Concerned About DC Dropping SM County Library

Open letter to the Mayor and Councilmen of Daly City

Dear Sirs:

As a professional librarian, I cannot help but be concerned about the public library service developments in this area. THE RECORD of September 19, 1957 reported the following:

"City councilmen reluctantly approved contract with the county free library Wednesday, after noting that the city pays $26,400 in taxes for receiving only $15,934 in services.

"The inequity results from the fact that Daly City must supply Broadmoor library users with approximately $9,536 worth of service, which the county considers as funds allocated to Daly City, according to the City Manager Howard Stites."

With all due respect to the City Manager and the sincerity of his efforts on behalf of Daly City, his figures quoted are not accurate. I feel it is important that the people of both Daly City and the Broadmoor area should have the facts of our library service which are available from our County Librarian.

According to the statement prepared by the County Librarian in accordance with the analysis method developed by the Administrative Analyst in the County Manager's office: "The County Library tax paid by Daly City in 1956/57 was $26,548.92. Total County Library expenditures for library service to Daly City were $33,023. The expenditure of $6,474.08 in excess of what was paid by Daly City residents can, of course, be justified only on the basis of use of Daly City Library facilities by county residents who live outside of the city limits of Daly City."

This much is interesting, but more facts are forthcoming. The total number of registered borrowers for Daly City Main Library and the Westlake-Broadmoor Branch are 11,245. Of these only 10.47% (1,178) are non-Daly City residents. Add to this the fact that 52% of the books available at Daly City were County-owned books. Estimates for the current fiscal year indicate the same general proportions.

Not everyone uses the public library; but the children and adults who do find it an exceedingly important and even vital part of their lives. Good libraries provide the people with the key to the treasures printed in books, magazines, and pamphlets. Each of us individually would have to spend thousands of dollars and many hours of time making selections, orders, etc., and provide shelves upon shelves of space in our homes and offices to have access to the printed material that is organized in such a way in our public libraries that all of us can use it for a very small part of our taxes. Availability of reading material means free flow in the communication of ideas. Our whole way of life depends upon the freedom of people to read, to talk, and to think about what they find enjoyable, educational and inspiring.

No small nor petty thinking should be done about public library facilities in the Daly City area or anyplace. What is needed is big thinking, wise planning and spending, to bring learning and satisfaction to the greatest number of people, their children, and their children's children, through the years to come.

Very sincerely yours,
Aida Larsen

Older Sections Said 'Neglected' On School Sites

Dear Editor:

I live in the Broadmoor area and have been reading a great deal in your paper about school sites, three to be exact, in the proposed new subdivision in the southern section of Daly City.

This might be very fine, but most unfair. I feel we in the older sections are being neglected in the selection of school sites. Shouldn't we be given an equal share of these new schools? We certainly have a present need. Why locate all the new schools in one area to serve a proposed school population. Surely this new subdivision could do with one or perhaps two schools and the third placed in a more central location. One located in the vicinity of 87th and Sullivan, which has available land, would then serve a larger area and be much more accessible.

It isn't that I resent the new subdivisions—I think they are fine and I'm happy to see our city grow and progress so rapidly—but let us not forget the older sections and make plans for them too. Tax-wise they have been paying and paying for a long time and doing without. Now they are expected to pay for and share the tax burden of new schools for a proposed population while their existing needs are not being taken care of!

Our school board should pause and reflect on present needs and not only concern themselves with anticipated needs. Prepare for the future, but not through neglect of the present.

Pacifica's Mayor Views Future

LADY LEADER BIT 'CAUTIOUS'

Pacifica's housewife-mayor Jean Fassler took a "sit tight" attitude today as she and four councilmen waited for their new Coastside community to officially become a city.

Mrs. Fassler, even busier at home with one of her three children ill with the flu, told the TIMES that she preferred "not to comment" on any aspects of Pacifica business until the city's incorporation was recognized by the state, and then not unless other councilmen were consulted.

"Anything we do now is only in the nature of preliminary meetings until we're officially incorporated," said the Pedro Valley mother.

The council has not yet decided where the "city hall" will be located. Other key issues that must wait include establishing of the tax rate, estimated at 13 cents, financing the city's operation until the end of the fiscal year July 1, 1958.

JEAN FASSLER
...Wait and See

dissolution of certain special service districts that would be a duplication of city service, and appointment of a city manager to supervise the city's operation.

The five councilmen-elect met with North Coast Sanitary district directors Friday for preliminary discussion on abandonment of the district. The first of what will be many sessions with the League of California Cities was held Saturday to acquaint the new officials with their duties and assist them in setting up their administration. The League will undoubtedly play a major part in helping the officials select their new manager.

San Mateo county's only woman mayor is still not officially serving in that capacity, since she must be elected by fellow councilmen when they hold their first meeting.

She is the mother of two sons, Walfred, 21, and Gregory, 10, and a daughter, Lynn, 6, who has been confined to bed with the flu.

All the children were proud of their mother's overwhelming victory in last week's election, as was her husband, Joseph, an employee with Standard Oil Co.

As Daly City's closest neighbor, officials of the two cities meet later to discuss mutual problems.

But for right now, Mrs. Fassler said she had "no comment" on the prospects for such a meeting.

New Coast Councilman Will Quit Elementary School Board Post

New Pacifica councilman Don Miller said today that he would give up his trusteeship on the Laguna Salada Elementary School board in order to carry out his duties as councilman and trustee on the Jefferson High School district.

Miller said he would fill out his term on the Laguna Salada board, which runs through May of 1958, but would not seek re-election.

"Unless things become unbearable, which I don't think they will, I will serve out my term," Miller said.

Pending count of 24 absentee ballots by county supervisors, Miller does not yet know whether his council term expires in April of 1958 or 1960.

Under the law, the two candidates finishing with the highest number of votes receive two-year council terms, while the remaining three winners serve only until April of next year.

Miller finished in third place last week, only two votes behind incorporation leader George Mason, 1522-1520, and the absentee ballots could send Miller into the second spot and a two-year term.

Supervisors were expected to canvass the absentee ballots at their regular meeting Tuesday, after which the county clerk will prepare certification of the election and forward the information to the secretary of state, who is officially empowered to create the city and confirm the slate of councilmen.

DON MILLER
...One Job Less?

Pacifica is expected to be official in about three or four weeks, depending on how fast the county clerk can process the papers.

Welfare Fraud Inspector Jails 'Working' Woman

District Attorney Keith C. Sorenson announced today that his investigator assigned to welfare fraud investigations last Friday effected another arrest in the continuing investigations to uncover and prosecute county welfare aid recipients who are not entitled to such aid or give false information concerning their economical status.

Mrs. Julieta Roez Pachinger, 30, a laundry worker residing at 2303 El Camino Real, Redwood City, was arrested October 25 on a complaint issued by the district attorney's office charging grand theft in the amount of $1303. It is alleged that Mrs. Pachinger had been working since the first of January, 1957, and earned a total of $1445, which she failed to report to the Department of Social Welfare, and, in fact, denied to her social worker that she was receiving any such additional income. Mrs. Pachinger was released on $500 bail and is scheduled to appear before Judge Branson of the Municipal Court, Central Judicial District, this Friday.

Sorenson further stated that his investigator, Adolph Fernandez, working under the direction of criminal deputy district attorney William J. Graham, has made several successful investigations resulting in convictions in similar circumstances and has two more cases in which criminal complaint are to be issued this week. A "considerable number" of additional cases are under investigation at the present time, Sorenson added.

'Dissolve' Motion Denied By Brisban Homeowners Head

David With, president of the Brisbane Homeowners association, categorically denied a story last week that he had made a motion to dissolve the organization.

The information, obtained from Laura Johnson, a member of the organization, was not a true account of what took place, according to With.

With said a motion was proposed by him to "continue" the association.

The president also denied that Attorney Nate Cohn had written the association a letter stating that he would demand his $750 in fees if the organization disbanded.

With said the note was written by Johnson, as per a telephone conversation with Cohn.

As to a remark that the $750 charge would place the membership in arrears because there was only $300 in the treasury, With said, "the association was incorporated under California law and no member would ever have to pay any part of the bills out of their own pockets."

With also pointed out that membership of the organization was 100, not 50.

No discussion was held on the amount of money in the treasury, With asserted, adding that "the discussion of Cohn's note never got to the financial stage."

With also claimed that the membership had not been asked to authorize consultations with Cohn's office for some time.

GOP Women Cancel Mayor's Talk Here

North County GOP Women have cancelled their luncheon at Westlake Joe's this Thursday due to the absence of intended guest speaker, Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco.

Mayor Christopher has not returned from a European vacation.

The local GOP women will hold their regular meeting next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lee Thompson, 12 Westbrook avenue, Westlake. Superior Judge Frank Blum will be the special speaker. The session starts at 8 o'clock.

'Early Bird' Files For SM Supervisor

Daniel J. Monaco, prominent peninsula attorney today announced his candidacy for San Mateo county supervisor post now held by Martin Poss. This supervisorial district number two encompasses San Mateo, Belmont, San Carlos and Hillsborough. Monaco stated that he has been considering this move over a period of several months and at the urging of many of his friends.

"I shall wage a positive campaign, not a negative one. Criticism will of course be involved but it will be constructive criticism. Although the election is eight months away,

DANIEL J. MONACO
.... An 'Early Bird'

I believe that in stating my intention and position clearly this far in advance it will be possible to give county issues the comprehensive treatment they deserve but so seldom have received. The actions of the Board of Supervisors affect the individual citizen more directly than those of the state or federal government. The difficulties and embarrassments in which our county government now finds itself dictate the need for new blood, new ideas and a new perspective."

Assemblyman Francis Appointed To More Legislative Committees

Additional legislative committee appointments for Assemblyman Louis Francis of San Mateo county were announced today by State Assembly Speaker L. H. Lincoln at the state capitol.

Francis is presently chairman of two committees, the Subcommittee on Corporation Laws and the Subcommittee on Pornographic Literature and Pictures.

New appointment adding to Francis' duties and work-load are membership on the Committee on Small Craft and Harbors and Waterways Development, and the subcommittees on Northern California Highways, Bay Area Highways and Transit, Motor Vehicle Safety Regulations and Devices, Personal Income Tax, Agricultural Products, Water Districts, Public Utilities Commission Safety Regulations, Recodification of Public Utilities Code, and Police Administration.

BRISBANE CEREMONY

Supt. Lipman, Trustees Praised As Community Dedicates New School

The community of Brisbane, unique for its self-supported school and recreation facilities, Sunday paid high tribute to its school superintendent, Natalie M. Lipman, by dedicating the new $253,000 intermediate school in her name.

Two prominent leaders in San Mateo County, Congressman J. Arthur Younger and Dr. Henry Hall, were the main speakers in praising the community, school trustees, and the superintendent and her administrative staff.

Younger, a close personal friend of Miss Lipman, and Dr. Hall, a former county superintendent, both remarked how unusual it was for a community of citizens to recognize the work of an individual during the professional life-time of that person.

Pioneer Leader

Miss Lipman, who was the second teacher to be hired by the Brisbane School District, honored the present and past school trustees and teachers.

"What a wonderful 25 years this has been," she said. "It goes to show what a small, but unified community, can achieve. . . . It goes to show the kind of people you are."

Younger, who presented the district with a flag of the United States which has flown over the Capitol building in Washington, stressed that it was the small, local school districts of America which are the backbone of our democratic system.

"We sometimes forget," Younger said, "that the true peacetime heroes of American democracy are the members of the local boards of trustees who spend countless hours devoted to the education of the children. . . . They are the defenders of the faith."

Good Record

Dr. Hall noted that the Brisbane School District has always had extremely high educational standards. He recounted the fact that Brisbane's school system had the first complete elementary music program in San Mateo County.

The educator also asserted that Brisbane's combination of a recreation center and play area, managed and supported by the school system, was one of the most unique educational ideas in Califorina. It is located adjoining the new school.

The recreation area was brought about through efforts of the trustees and Miss Lipman, and through cooperation of the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors, in 1955. Cost of the recreation building was $65,000. The program is financed through a special school tax.

Duncan Emcee

Master of ceremonies for the dedication program was Louis Duncan, clerk of the board of trustees. Trustee Ellen Bhend traced the growth of educational facilities, including the construction of the first Brisbane school at the lowest cost in county history under Miss Lipman's direction.

Trustee Charles May introduced two former trustees present as guests. They were Mrs. Mary Arcotti, who served from 1941 to 1943, and Clinton Stewart, who served from 1945 to 1953.

Choral numbers were presented by the school glee club directed by Mrs. Joanne Sandoval. The school orchestra was conducted by Mrs. Diane Egli.

Principal of the new school, which includes a 500-seat auditorium, library, cafeteria, offices, art and shop rooms, and six classrooms, is Mrs. Montie Rice.

Brisbane school trustees are the clerk, Louis Duncan; Mrs. Ellen Bhend; Mrs. Margaret Galten; Edward Whitson; and Charles May.

SM County Scout Council Lists Changes Planned For 'Explorers'

Changes in the Explorer program of the Boy Scouts of America were reviewed and approved by the Executive Committee of the San Mateo County Council meeting recently in the Council's Burlingame office, with President Graeme K. McDonald presiding.

As the result of studies made by the Survey Research Center of the University of Michigan, of the current interests, concerns and attitudes of adolescent boys, and of the Explorer program by the Boy Scouts of America's Research Service, the National Council Executive Board, adopted the first of a series of steps in the updating of the Explorer program designed to bring Explorer-aged youth a program that will appeal to their interests and will at the same time aid in including those purposes for which the Scouting movement has always stood.

The year 1958 will serve as a period transition so that there will be time to serve the best interests of each boy affected.

Beginning with Scout Troop charter renewals from January 1, 1958, boys of Explorer age, 14 and up, will have the following options: They may continue as registered Boy Scouts in their troop; or they may register as Explorers in the troop according to present procedure; or they may join an Explorer unit.

As of January 1, 1959, boys registering for the first time in any branch of Exploring will be required to be in the ninth grade or above and 14 years of age. Boys 15 or older may register regardless of grade. Also in 1959, Explorers in troops and Explorer crews will cease to be a part of troop operation.

Changes in the personal achievement program are also to be made in 1959. Explorer Apprentice, Bronze, Gold and Silver Awards and ratings will be discontinued at that time and Explorers will be encourged to acquire the Eagle rank. No change is planned for the achievement program of Air and Sea Exploring.

Veterans News

The state's definition of a California veteran—eligible for a 'Cal-Vet' farm or home loan or educational assistance—specifies among other things at least 90 days active military service for World War II or Korean veterans.

While the Military and Veterans Code defines these war periods, it is so worded that only one day served within these periods qualifies a veteran for benefits. World War II is defined as the period from December 7, 1941 through December 31, 1946, and the Korean conflict as June 27, 1950 through January 31, 1955. Both dates are inclusive.

Having defined the wars the Code goes on to say that any portion of a veteran's military duty falling within these periods will meet the service qualifications.

California veterans must be natives of this state or have been bona-fide residents when they began active duty. They must have been discharged under honorable conditions. They must not have received a bonus from another state for the war service on which they base their eligibility.

Unit Activities

Lake Merced Auxiliary 9921, VFW, presented seven 5-year membership pins and one 10-year pin at the recent inspection meeting. The County Council president and members from the Old Glory and Shoreview auxiliaries attended. Members are selling aprons to raise funds for holiday activities.

The 26th District, American Legion Auxiliary, will meet in East Palo Alto Legion Hall on Friday evening, November 8. Plans will be completed at this time for the participation by all Units in the county in the holiday activities at Palo Alto hospital.

Several members from this area attended the past presidents' parley breakfast held Monday morning at the Villa hotel at which time a program of activities was planned for the Women's Ward at Palo Alto hospital. Mrs. Laura Stecher was in charge of the affair.

The 8&40, American Legion Auxiliary of San Mateo county will hold a card party at Burlingame Legion Hall, Saturday evening, November 9. The proceeds will go to their child welfare work, assisting underprivileged children and contributing to 'The prevention of Tuberculosis in Children.' Work is being done in several San Mateo county institutions.

San Mateo County Salon, 8&40, recently entertained the department officers headed by Ruth Johnson of San Anselmo, at which time over 100 members attended. Definite programs were set to help carry out the plans for these affairs.

Daly City Post 410, American Legion, members have been spending much time visiting sick members. Past Commanders Peter Bordson and Nicholas Chauses have undergone recent surgery and are still hospitalized. Several other members have been down with the flu.

Broadmoor Post 824, American Legion, announce they have reached their membership quota but are out now to get many new members. Veterans in this vicinity are urged to join the American Legion now.

RAG CHAMPS — Among top collectors in the OLPH school rag drive were these eighth grade students (left to right) Diane and Gail Barsotti, 40 bags of rags; Charleen Maschinot, 26 bags; Michael Stanley, nine bags. The eighth grade students brought in a total of 211 bags of rags to win out over all other classes.

Eighth Graders At OLPH Winners In Rag Contest

The eighth grade students at Our Lady of Perpetual Help school brought in 211 bags of rags and walked off with an extra half-hour recess as their reward for winning the contest among the eight grades at the school.

Sister Mary Louise, eighth grade teacher, further rewarded the girls of the class by granting them a second extra recess, because they brought in more rags than the male members of the class.

In the three week contest the entire student-body of the school were responsible for collecting 1½ tons of rags, according to Mrs. Betty Maschinot, rag drive chairman.

A group picture was presented to the following students for being the individual in their respective grade bringing the most bags of rags to school: Michael Stanley, Gail Barsotti, Charleen Maschinot, Diane Barsotti, Sandra Montoya, Scott Goulden, Judy Ricci, Daniel Lacayo, and Michael Calegari.

Judy Ricci, seventh grade student, was highly commended by both the Mothers' club and Sister Mary Louise, school principal for bringing in a total of 27 bags of rags.

Episcopal Men See 49er Films

Highlights of the San Francisco 49ers' 1956 season will be shown St. Martin's Episcopal Men's club at its next meeting, November 19, 8 p.m., in the meeting room of J. C. Penney's Westlake store, according to Richard T. Phillips, spokesman for the newly-organized group.

In addition, it is planned to invite a guest speaker, the Rev. Over, missionary from the Philippine Islands, to discuss his work in the Orient. Officers will be elected and refreshments will be served. All interested men of the Westlake-Daly City area are cordially invited to be present.

W'lake Girl Scouts Hold Initial Meet At Leader's Home

First meeting of Troop 65, Westlake's only Girl Scout Troop, was held last week at the home of Mrs. Sanford F. Schoenfeld, group leader, 58 Fairway drive.

Highlighted was the investiture of Susan Neumann, a newcomer from Australia. She was "pinned" in a candlelight ceremony featuring an explanation of Scout laws and objectives.

After this initiation, Halloween refreshments were served by Marlo Brown, hostess for the occasion.

Girls in the Troop include Irene Davis, Lori McDonnell, Shirley Schutte, Judy Johnson, Darien Ryan, Wendy Warfield, Barbara Lina and Kathie Schoenfeld.

This week the girls were scheduled to tour the Junior Museum to select a project for their arts and crafts requirement.

75 Kids Cavort At Jeff School Halloween Party

About 75 "ghosts, goblins, witches," etc., drifted in and out of the multi-use room at Jefferson Elementary school last week. John Mackey, recreation chairman, arranged the program for the children's Halloween party.

The children had an amateur show and Mary Jean Marchetti and Roy Sanguinetti were voted the most entertaining performers.

The highlight of the evening was the costume judging. Mrs. Robert O. Adams, Mrs. P. Sanquinetti Jr. and Elmer Littlejohn were the judges for this event.

Westmoor Gives 'Brides-To-Be' Practice Run

"With six girls in Advanced Homemaking planning June Weddings, it was only natural that part of our efforts in class be directed toward future events and careers," commented Mrs. Janet Sweeney, Westmoor High home economics teacher, as she explained the reasoning behind the practice wedding and reception held last week.

Following the procedure of a regular wedding, the girls sent out wedding and reception invitations to the administration and faculty. Participating in the wedding, which included a processional and recessional, were: Mardel Fox, Joyce Jones, Betty Cunningham, Sina Peabody, Georgeann Myers, Verda Borges, Marcia Serfis, Lorena Lorenzen, Ladonna Hayes, Beverly Sanders, Bonnie Wyrick, and Betty Andres. These participants portrayed bride, groom, their parents, attendants, and ushers.

Pink and white was the color scheme on the table with the three-layer wedding cake baked by the class being decorated with pink frosting flowers. Carrying through with this idea was the French custard ice cream decorated with pink flowers, and the pink candles and pink carnation centerpiece. Homemade mints and lemon wafers, a groom's cake of banana nut, and punch completed the refreshments.

All arrangements and food preparation were planned and completed by the Advanced Homemaking class.

NOVEMBER 16 BAZAAR

St. Martin's Ladies Optimistic As 'Harvest Festival' Approaches

By Hilda Buel

Amusements for young and old, plenty of food, and painless early Christmas shopping will be the chief attractions at the Harvest Festival bazaar of St. Martin's Episcopal women's auxiliary November 16 at Benjamin Franklin school, 700 Stewart street, Broadmoor, according to Mrs. Walter F. Michels, general chairman for the event.

Remarking that, in addition to raising approximately $1700 for the church building now under construction at Southgate avenue and Bradley drive, the two previous annual bazaars were invaluable in unifying the membership and arousing enthusiasm for the church and all its activities, Mrs. Michels expressed the belief that similar results will follow this year.

Booths for the sale of handmade toys, doll clothes, fancywork, notions, Christmas decorations, parcel post parcels, jewelry, greeting cards, "white elephants" and gift wrappings, as well as lemonade and candy, will be open to the public from 3 to 9 p.m. Games of putting, dime-pitch, and grab-bag will be played at the same hours, and a spaghetti dinner will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. Dolls with complete wardrobes will be given as prizes in a ticket contest.

Meeting Monday night in the home of Mrs. Richard Varney, the bazaar committee discussed final arrangements and planned to extend personal invitations to approximately 250 local families now enrolled at the church. Those present were: Mrs. Michels, Mrs. Donald E. Piercy, Mrs. J. T. Stansfield, Mrs. Kenneth W. Brugge, Mrs. Jack R. Baker, Mrs. L. S. Buel, Mrs. B. G. Nagy, Mrs. Hugh E. Simmons, Mrs. Richard T. Phillips, Mrs. Mervyn Stang, Mrs. Fred Brown, Mrs. Reuben H. Hunt, and Mrs. Verney.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

If you love animals, if you think that our little furry brothers are much nicer than we in some respects and frightfully similar in others; if you can "identify" with forest creatures to where you appreciate how cozy and snug a hollow tree can be when it's snowing outside—"Perri" currently at the Stage Door is for you.

Perri, the heroine of Disney's first true-life fantasy, is a female pine squirrel. The thread of her life as she follows nature's cycle from blind babyhood to her own romance with handsome, bushy-tailed Porro, makes an engrossing animal film, featuring dozens of wild creatures.

Forest Babies

It opens when Perri is just a baby and there are enchanting (to one who is mad about animals) scenes of Perri and other forest babies learning how to survive in a world which knows only one law—eat or be eaten—and where "death is a necessary end, some must die that others may live."

With unbelievable patience, the naturalist photographers have caught innumerable vignettes of intimate living: a mother squirrel carrying her babies from one shelter to another; a mouse spending the winter in a robin's empty house; a fox throwing a baby rabbit to her brood; a meeting between a skunk and a raccoon family, with one of each becoming confused and insisting upon following the wrong mother, and a closeup of the revenous face of a marten, red slavering jaws agape.

Photographed in Technicolor in the forests of Utah and Wyoming, "Perri" is scenically rewarding and there is a startlingly beautiful ballet sequence combining true-life with special effects by Ub Iwerks and Joshua Meador. However, there are two major flaws which are extremely annoying:

Forest Murmurs

The mood is shattered periodically by a spoken commentary and a chorus of female voices. At times the latter wail a wordless accompaniment and at others they sing little songs, one unpleasantly reminiscent of the motto of a popular woman's magazine.

Commentary is occasionally necessary, but must it be in rhyme? A musical accompaniment is likewise necessary, but it would have been much more pleasing had it been orchestral only, augmented by bird calls and other natural forest murmurs.

This point is well illustrated in "Niock," a delightful featurette about some Indo-Chinese children and their baby elephant.

OLPH Moms Change Dates On Meetings

Beginning with their next session on the evening of November 14, all future monthly meetings of the OLPH Mothers' Club will be held on the second Thursdays of each month.

Next Thursday night's meeting begins at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium, 80 Wellington avenue.

TV and Radio

The cupboards were stocked with pickles, rice and other food supplies just as in any kitchen . . . the cupboard walls were sparkling white . . . the stove shiny new. In the kitchen was a charming blond girl smartly dressed in a beige wool set off with a fur collar and bright red apron, busily working. There was a difference though . . . it wasn't just an ordinary kitchen, but the setting for KGO Radio newest "live" audience show, "Cooking With Music" (weekdays, 12 noon) starring Dorothy Day and Jim Moore. Watching the glamorous star we thought to ourselves, but can she cook? Our question was answered at the close of the show when out of the oven came a delicious swiss cheese 'n ham pie which she had so efficiently whipped up during the program.

Dorothy and Jim are a good combination and keep the show moving right along with just the proper amount of humor and informality. With special musical entertainment . . . valuable prizes . . . questions on food and cooking . . . the program adds up to a perfectly delightful hour. Why not plan to attend if you are downtown shopping . . . or better still bring a group of friends from your club? Tickets are yours for the asking—just telephone KGO at UN 3-0077.

KIDDIES' CORNER . . . Using good judgement in program planning KQED has organized its outstanding lineup of children's shows into a new feature called the "Niners Club." For youngsters in the three to nine age bracket, programs are scheduled weekdays from 4:30 to 5 p.m. which is an excellent time for young viewers. Another half-hour at 6:30 p.m. on weekdays is designed for older youngsters. Included in the week's shows are many fine children's programs including a new series, "Music Go Round," an interlude of recorded music aired on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Why not have your youngster become a regular participant in the "Niner Club"?

MEDICAL SHOWS . . . . "House Call" (KPIX, Sat., 4 p.m.) a new medical series which documents the problems, accomplishments and facilities of San Francisco Bay Area's doctors and medical institutions is an outstanding addition to Channel 5's fall public service programs.

Another good medical series is KQED's "World of Medicine" which is shown every Tuesday evening at 10 p.m.

Over KRON-TV, the excellent panel show "Doctors News Conference" featuring leading bay area doctors is now seen on Sunday afternoons at 2 p.m.

Deadline Nears For Candidates In Navy ROTC

High school seniors and graduates have only until November 16 to apply for the Navy's Reserve Officer Training Corps, Vice Adm. James A. Holloway Jr., Chief of Naval Personnel, said today. Applicants will take the nationwide competitive examination on December 14 as the first step toward an appointment as midshipman.

Designed to supplement the officer output of the Naval Academy, the NROTC program makes it possible for a young man to earn a commission while studying at the civilian college of his choice which has an NROTC unit. All tuition, fees and books are furnished by the Navy, and the student receives an annual retainer of $600 for four years. During the summers the student goes on fascinating training cruises to many parts of the world.

High school seniors and graduates between the ages of 17 and 21 may apply for the NROTC aptitude test. Those who make a qualifying score will be given a rigid physical exam early in 1958. From the pool of qualified young men remaining in competition, approximately 2000 will be selected to begin their naval careers next September.

Application forms are available at all high schools, colleges, Navy Recruiting Stations, or from the Chief of Naval Personnel, Washington 25, D. C.

Batters Guard Rail, Coast Driver Jailed

Edward Contreras, 24-year-old San Francisco supermarket employee, was arrested by Daly City police Thursday night after his northbound car swerved across Coast highway near Mussel Rock and rammed a steel guard rail.

Officers cited him for being drunk in and about an auto and for disturbing the peace, the latter count resulting from "belligerency" after he was taken into custody.

SF Man, 49, In Death Try Here

A 49-year-old San Francisco man reportedly attempted suicide in Westlake early Saturday morning by connecting a 25-foot hose to the exhaust pipe of his car, according to police.

Elden E. Schmidt, of 571 Valencia street, occupation not listed, was found unconscious in the front seat of the car, which had its motor running. The incident took place in the parking area at the rear of 333 Park Plaza drive.

Schmidt was taken to Junipero Serra hospital by Officer Frank Murray, then was transferred to San Francisco County hospital for 72-hour hold.

A suicide note was found in the car by Special Officer Bob Stone. Its contents were not disclosed.

SF Man Collapses, Dies In Westlake

A San Francisco man, 54, was dead on arrival at Junipero Serra hospital early Friday evening after he collapsed while riding with his son through Westlake.

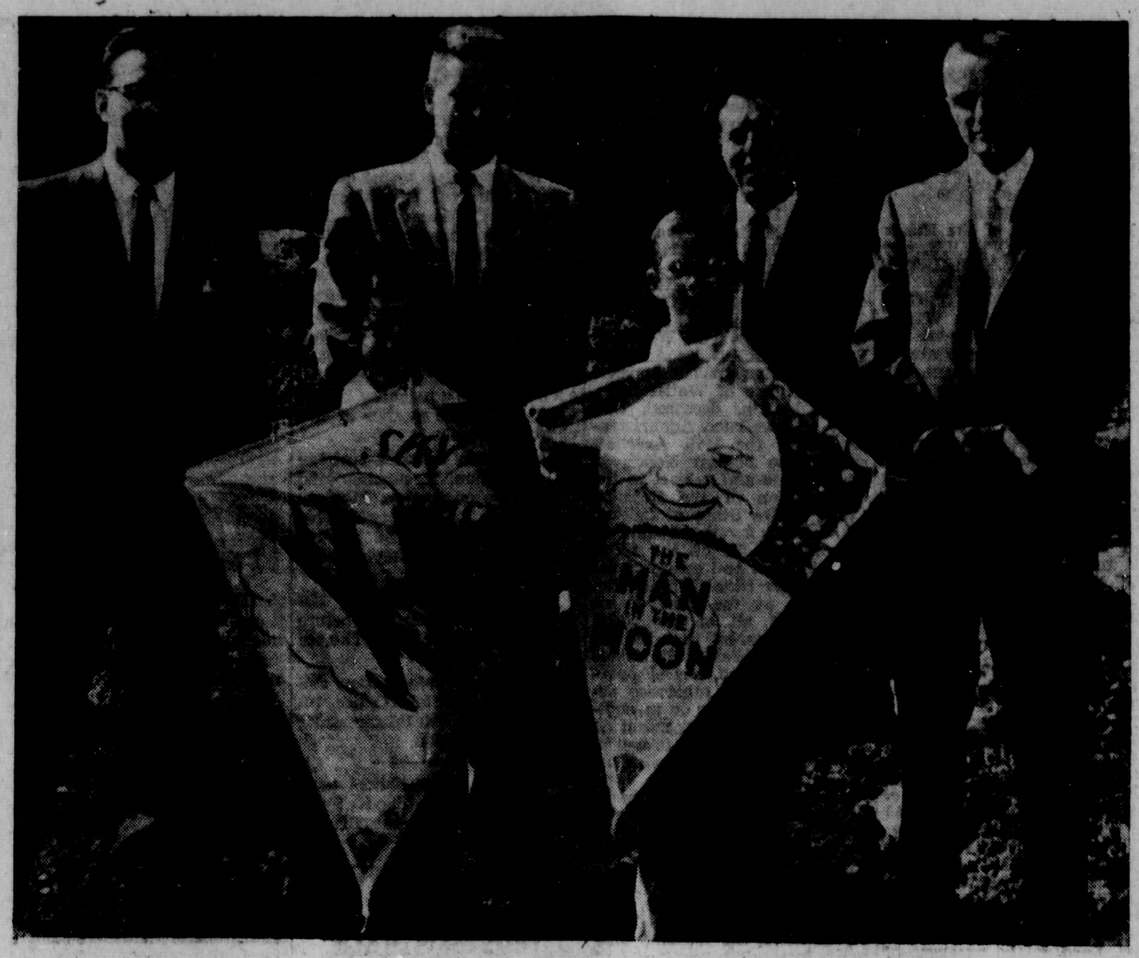
Victim was Sol Woolf, of 831 31st avenue. His son summoned police to Westlake Joe's parking lot after the older man "passed out" while attempting to leave the car.

Daly City firemen attempted to revive the stricken Woolf with oxygen before the ambulance arrived.

Eagle Scout Dinner Set For December 3

Plans are well under way for the Fourth Annual Eagle Scout Recognition Dinner for all active Eagle Scouts in the San Mateo County Council, according to Emmett G. Solomon, chairman of the recognition dinner. The affair will again be held in the Pacific Room of the Villa Hotel in San Mateo. The date, originally set for December 4, is on December 3.

California had more rodeos, a longer season and more contestants than any other State last year.



YOUTH APPRECIATION Week will be observed by Lake Merced Optimists with a kite flying contest Saturday at Westlake park, at 12 noon. Getting ready for the outing are youngsters Jimmy (left) and Stephen Nessier, while members of the Optimists club, in the same order, are Carl Davis, Charles Christian, Duke Lamont and Fred Bennett. All youth are invited to participate in the contest and free refreshments will be served. Trophies will be awarded for the highest flying kits, the best home-made kite and other miscellaneous catagories.

WILD HI SCHOOL YOUTH STOPPED VIA 'BLOCKADE'

A 17-year-old Riordan High senior was "blockaded" in Westlake last week after he cussed a police officer, attempted to speed away, hit another car, and tried to flee again.

Apparently the victim of too much to drink, the youth was given chase near Lynnewood and Southgate by Officer Richard Sims after allegedly calling the policeman "names" as he drove by. Sims opened up with his siren and chased the delinquent until the latter rammed a car driven by Terry Walling, 214 Bocano, San Francisco, at the intersection.

The Riordan student again drove away, but was trapped at Crestwood and Southgate as Officer H. Gross blocked the street.

Booked on several counts, the high schooler admitted he had been drinking vodka, police said.

Linda Mar PTA's 1st Family Night Attended By 200

The Linda Mar school community room was filled with excitement recently as an enthusiastic crowd of 200 students, parents and teachers celebrated their P.T.A.'s first Family Night.

After spaghetti dinner, the net went up for a rousing volley ball game between parents and students, won by the former, 21-17.

"We were certainly pleased with such a fine turnout," said Mrs. Jean Smith, PTA president, "and our especial thanks go to Pauline Barnhart, Betty Steinert, Mavis Reynheer, Gladys Roberts, Bernice Oswald, Vanita Ernst, Rita Koller, Pet Miller, Stephanie Frees, Betty Langosch, Connie Mason, and Juanita Lucas for their work in handling the dinner."

Mrs. Smith pointed out that the November meeting should hold as much interest for everyone when "Youth Speaks Up." This will be in the form of a panel discussion between students and parents as they discuss such subjects as dating, what age for lipstick, television viewing, and what time for bed. The panel will be selected and further plans made for the program at the next PTA executive board meeting on Tuesday, November 12. Parents were reminded that due to the Thanksgiving holidays, the regular general meeting of the PTA will be held November 19.

'Home' Bound Driver Arrested As Drunk

Theodore Morales was driving "home" early Sunday morning when Broadmoor police apprehended him on Junipero Serra boulevard.

Morales, 32, of 38 Elkwood drive, South San Francisco, was going north, but he insisted that he was going home. Since his home was in a southerly direction and because his driving appeared erratic, Morales was booked for drunk driving. A sobriety test at Junipero Serra hospital showed positive for the unemployed motorist.

This being Morales second arrest for the same offense, his bail was set at $750.

Gary Ryan was Jefferson's representative to Boys' State this summer. Besides meeting a lot of other boys from all over California, Gary learned how the government works. One of the highlights of the week was the appearance of Miss California at one of the many assemblies. At the assemblies, which were held once a day, the boys listened to music furnished by the band, and also listened to the speakers. To quote Gary, "I had a wonderful time, and I'm glad I was chosen to go to the conference, especially when Miss California appeared on the scene."

The privileged girl from the 1958 graduating class to go to Girls' State last June was Deanna Dolan. Davis campus of the University of California found fellow students meeting and fully enjoying their one week stay. Deanna reported many experiences that she will never forget. Among them was the meeting of Governor Knight at the state capital. Governor Knight took time out to greet each girl and to talk to the group. Deanna was chosen, like Gary, on the basis of her grades, personality, and attendance. She is now vice president of the student body and active in school activities.

Cake Sale

The cake sale sponsored by the Junior Class on October 16 was a big success. Proceeds from this sale will go towards their Junior Prom.

The Juniors will also be selling rooter's buttons, with the profits going toward making their Prom bigger and better.

Soon the public will enjoy the all play, "Blithe Spirit." Now nicely shaping up and improving with each rehearsal is this year's fall production.

The cast, student director, and Miss Seaton have been putting every moment of their spare time into the preparation of a phenomenal play.

November 14 and 15 are the two nights scheduled for the big presentation. Soon tickets will be on sale, and the public is invited to come and spend an enjoyable evening watching "Blithe Spirit."

Vicki Tomasi was appointed committee head in charge of the Peninsula Conference to be held at Jefferson on March 31. The conference is one of the big events of the school year and should be very rewarding.

The Trindians, a service organization associated with the Y.W.C.A. are planning their activities for the year, which include skating, slumber parties at the Y.W.C.A., and bowling. There wil be two more special meetings before final signups. The dues are $1 per year.

The GAA Group is well organized this year. The first activity for the season is swimming. Each girl is on one of three teams, and each team is identified by the color of suit worn. Miss Erickson is in charge of this first activity.

Budding Diplomats

Another popular club at Jeff is the Junior Statesmen. Its new officers are: President Maria Bocci; Vice President, Joyce McCowen; Secretary, Marijean Stevens; Treasurer, Carolyn Dennis. The club is planning to attend a state convention in November.

At the October 9 meeting of the executive board, the announcement was made about the new commissioner of clubs. Gloria Pelz, senior, was elected to be in charge of all clubs or other groups at Jefferson. This position on the executive board is a new one and a great deal of responsibility is placed with confidence in Gloria.

Jefferson's band is doing a fine job this year at the rallies and games. Mr. Larson is in charge of the band, and its members are helping immensely to produce all the school spirit that is being shown at all Jeff functions.

Expanded Slate Set Here For Scouts, Leaders

A three-way emphasis on the Lake Merced District scouting program designed to increase registration on new boys, "beef up" the leadership and parent participation in some of the newer units, and provide a "hard core" of trained volunteer leaders to make units function at peak efficiency was outlined this week by Al Beerbower, district chairman.

"We are now keeping total of new registrations, and as of now have a total of 1765 registered Scouts," he said. "If all units—cub packs, scout troops, and explorer posts—do a real recruiting job we should reach 400 more boys by the end of this year."

Dan E. Andersen, chairman of the district's organization and extension committee, reports a full schedule of organizing meetings with sponsoring units including talks with the Daly City Lions Club. Frederic Burke school parents and faculty, Temple Methodist Church, and Colma PTA. He said the number of new units to be put on an operating basis should keep pace with recruiting of new boys and re-registration of older ones who have become dis-associated from former units.

District Commissioner Howard Stites has emphasized that a newly-developed system of having neighborhood commissioners "divide up and keep a close contact with small numbers of scout units should help us to help individual pack, troop or post leadership. When they need training, camping or advancement advice, or more parental assistance to 'beef up' their program, our people are going to see they get it." He said the "leadership training programs are going to be staggered so there will always be an opportunity for new adults to take part and fulfill their obligations to the youth character building work of Scouting."

Beerbower issued a call for everyone in the community with ideas for advancing the Scouting program to contact himself or Jack Hurt, district scout executive who may be reached through S. F. Council Office.

Calaveras County's 1955 mineral production had an estimated value of $10,014,759.

Ram Tales

by Ron Bosc

As most of you know, Westmoor made television Tuesday, last week, on "Rock 'n Rally," the teenage show. Attending the program were mostly student officers and kids best in the different sports.

We arrived around 4:30 and were all anxious to get inside the KPIX building to practice for the program. We were then huddled into the studio where the program was to be held, and then introduced to Dick Crest, master of ceremonies. Then he led us through the different routines we were supposed to do, and all of us were a bit nervous! But before we knew what was happening, the program began, and we were on. After the program ended, we had group pictures taken, thanked Crest for being a perfect host and then were homeward bound.

Senior 'Fascination'

The Seniors are really doing a terrific job on their dance, to be held November 15, which will be semi-formal. The dance will be from 8:30 to 11:30, and tickets will be 50 cents stag and 75 cents for couples. Purpose is to raise money for our Senior Ball. Chairmen of the different committees are: ticket sales, Julie Huelak; decorations, Bev Sanders; refreshments, Jean Roller; entertainment, Barbara Marshell, and clean up, Jackie Willard.

Theme will be "Fascination," so the decorations will be weird colors and abstract figures.

The Science Club recently took a field trip to look for plant life for Mr. Kaulfeldts biology class. Another trip is being planned to Moss Beach in the near future.

Westmoor High In TV Spotlight On Popular 'Rock 'n Rally' Show

Westmoor High School was featured on "Rock 'n Rally" television show over KPIX last week. The show each evening features various Bay Area high schools and teen groups.

A birdseye picture of Westmoor was given in the 30 minutes by students and special films. These movies of the campus showed the shop area, particularly mechanical drawing and wood shop, corridors, Spirit Week activities and a rally.

Bucky Hyers, Westmoor student body president, commented on the film and described briefly the school and its administration. Master of Ceremonies Dick Crest, describing the school, called it the "most beautiful in the area."

Representing Ram athletes was Bob Roller, who talked about Westmoor's teams. But stealing the show from his brother was three-year-old Johnny Roller, the team's mascot, in his Ram outfit, performing his usual football routine.

The pom-pom girls performed to Westmoor's top tune, "Lotta Loving." Cheer leaders demonstrated Westmoor's pep when they presented the "Swinging T" cheer.

Bucky Hyers presented a Westmoor pennant to Crest. This pennant will be on permanent display at KPIX. Crest, in turn, presented an honor certificate to Westmoor High.

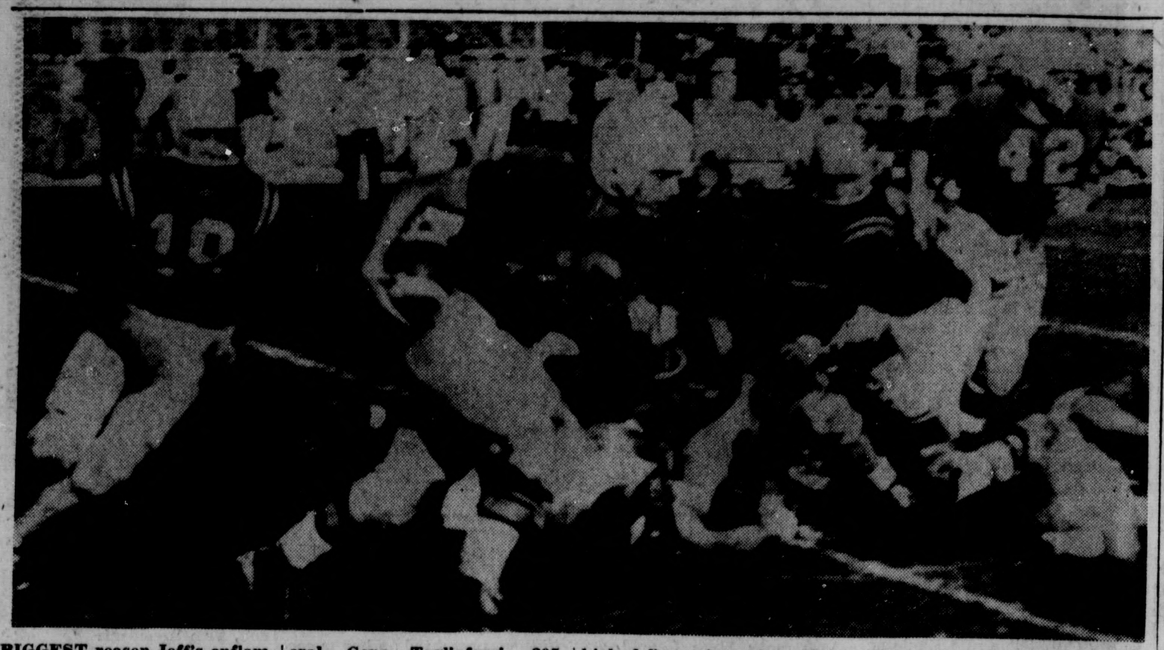
INDIANS 'WIN' LOSING WAR WITH CAP, 68-45



BIGGEST reason Jeff's enflamed Indians lost Friday's racehorse 68-45 contest to Capuchino was San Bruno field general Gene Tagliaferri, 205-pound QB. Tag, outshone by Paul Tapia's 7 scoring tosses, managed to tally one TD and kicked five extra points. He ran for 63 yards and passed for 231. Four of his pitches went for touchdowns. Indian Herb Dirks (far left) gives the Cap standout pursuit above.

Tapia On Target

McGrath Kids Shock Mighty Loop Leaders

By Roy Hurlbert

Mentally victorious though physically beaten 68-45 by scared and slightly deflated Capuchino here last week, Jefferson High's downed-but-never-out Indian footballers come back to earth this Friday by hosting the Crusaders of Riordan in a game that isn't worrying anybody.

The practice tilt, starting at 2:45 o'clock, again finds Paul Tapia, the kid with the golden arm, at the controls against Jeff's second parochial foe of the campaign. Coach Joe McGrath, who got the coaching thrill of his life in the Capuchino downpour, looks for a good ball game.

But who cares? Jeff's seven-TD outburst against Cap was the game of the year. Though materially inferior, the Indians fought Paul Baldwin's "untouchables" down to the wire as Peninsula League records and Capuchino's legendary rating went out the window.

Mustangs Good

Cap, mind you, could be the team of the year in Northern California. The San Brunans, first stringers going all by 3 minutes, had to play like world-beaters to outlast Tapia and his pass-snagging mates.

McGrath had his hospital fugitives sky high in that one, literally and really. A tilt that could have been a walk for the title-chugging Mustangs turned out to be a ball game that will be talked about by the grandkids of Jefferson's "many" heroes Friday.

To be sure, Gene Tagliaferri and his Cap comrades were ready for the psychiatrist's couch most of the way.

A team favored to win by a "you name it" score, Cap needed tranquilizers aplenty after the Injuns stampeded from a 13-0 first quarter deficit, went ahead 19-13 early in the next period, then walked out at the intermission a point behind, 20-19. Baldwin apparently didn't tell his boys how to combat the old intangible in football, a thing called "desire."

Tide Turns

The final two quarters, as expected, went to the superior league leaders, 40 points to 26.

Tapia, who several times got clobbered by Cap's fierce line but still rocketed aerials, merely ran out of time. Nobody was happier than Baldwin when the gun went off and his shocked shock troops dragged homeward, wagging their press clippings behind them.

Capuchino, it must be said, is the kind of team that can spot you three touchdowns and beat you by five. Defense is secondary. Great overall team speed is Baldwin's biggest asset. Fortunately, Tagliaferri's infantry ran with the customary thunder. No team, even Berkeley, Cap's rival for Norcal "Team of the Year," will be able to hold the Brunans to a TD or two. Cap will visit the end zone at least four times in every contest.

Good Receivers

Tapia, who will be kept off the all-league team only at the point of a shotgun, had plenty of help Friday.

McGrath's pitching ace ripped up the records with 441 yards in the air, hitting 24 times in 44 throws. His receptionists, who accounted for all Jeff TD's, played as never before. Likewise that unsung Jeff line, headed by Neil Dunsford, Jerry Kennedy, John Dean and Dennis Bucher, to cite just a few. And how about tiny John Margaroni and Bob Lynch on defense. Tigers all!

If a lineman gets a unanimous vote for the all-Peninsula squad it should be Pete Garcia.

The gutty Jeff junior, limping with a bad ankle, turned in his usual game. Tremendous, no less. Pete scampered all the way three times on the end of Tapia tosses, in explosions of determined running that covered 67, 20 and 54 yards. He also booted three extra points, putting him second in league scoring.

Tapia also went the distance on two tosses to Barry Haanen, one to Gary Ryan, and a pitchout, Haanen to Sonny Martinez that went for 68 yards.

Praises Line

McGrath was real proud of his thin line, tackle to tackle. Cap, for the first time this year, was roadblocked at these intersections. But Tagliaferri was successful on the end sweeps and upstairs. He went 9 for 13 and 231 aerial yards.

Final stats, qualifying the keeper for the bug house, found Cap leading in total yards, 571-474, and first downs, 13-3.

Martinez was Jeff's best ground gainer. He sprinted 78 yards on five trips.

Three Indians will sit out the Riordan encounter. Pat Lena, a "knee" victim, will be joined by Garcia and Martinez on the sidelines. McGrath hopes the layoff will mend the trio for the coming battle with Burlingame.

Cap meets Burlingame in a scrap of unbeatens this Friday. The Panthers will not score 45 points. It could only happen here.

TITLE-HUNGRY SF STATE 11 INVADE SACTO

The fate of the 1957 San Francisco State football team's standings in the Far Western Conference will be decided within the next two weeks. The Gators along with Chico State are now resting atop the FWC with three conference wins and no defeats.

However, the San Franciscans invade the nest of the Sacramento State Hornets this Saturday night. The following week, Head Coach Joe Verducci sends his Gators into the Chico State camp for what FWC observers believe to be the championship clincher.

oy -1ndg-iy

The Sacramento team's only defeat in conference play was to Chico State, 21-13. A win for the state capitol players would put them back into the race for the FWC title.

All in all, the Gator eleven has two weeks of tough football play cut out for them. Last week's 38-23 win over Long Beach State proved that San Francisco State could come from behind and win. Trailing 10-6 at halftime, the Gators under the auspices of the John Sochor brother team, the ground churning of Fullbacks Hank Marshall and Bob Rodrigo, and the line leadership of Little All-American Guard Floyd Peters vanquished the Long Beach team.

The Gators hold a 5-2 season record, with three conference wins over Humboldt State (28-14); Nevada (21-8); California Aggies (46-0); and two intersectional victories over Long Beach (38-23) and San Quentin (32-13). The two losses have come from CCAA teams Fresno State (27-7) and San Diego State (14-13).

Slate Turkey Shoot

Brisbane Rod & Gun Club will stage a 16-yard-trap Turkey Shoot this Sunday at the range located east off Highway 1 at the Princeton airport. Firing starts at 10 a.m. and the public is invited, according to Del Sweet, range officer.

THE TOSSING TERROR

Tapia Tops Peninsula League In Total Offense, Pass Hits

Senior Paul Tapia, pitching for seven more TD's last week to bring his loop total to 15 strikes, is leading the Peninsula League in two departments today, according to official statistics released by Jim Price.

Jeff's "guided missile," bothered all season by a bad knee, leads the league in total offense and in passing effectiveness.

Paul has 1030 net yards, all on air shots, and has a 50 percent accuracy mark, with 53 hits in 106 tosses, 15 of them for touchdowns.

Tag Trails

Capuchino's Gene Tagliaferri, a tremendous all-around field general, is runnerup for total offense, with 936 yards, 272 of these by rushing.

Westmoor's Dave Simons ranks third with 337 yards.

Tagliaferri is the PL scoring leader with 7 TD's and 19 extra points for a total of 61. All-loop candidate Pete Garcia, Jeff's roaring end, is next with 39 points in four PAL games. Team mate Gary Ryan is fourth, with 25 points, and swift Sonny Martinez is ninth with 13.

Jeff is far in front in the pass-reception department, no surprise what with Tapia at the throttle. Ryan leads the Peninsula with 21 catches for 258 yards and 4 TD's. Martinez has hauled in 14 for 308 yards and 2 scores, while Garcia has grabbed 11 aerials for 373 yards and 6 tallies.

Devincenzi Leads

In individual rushing, Arizona State-bound Bob Devincenzi, San Mateo's fine straight man, is tops with an 8.3 per carry average. He has 307 yards on ground shots.

Tagliaferri is next with a 7.8 average, with 272 yards on 35 carries.

Martinez is eighth in this category, via unlimited duty, with an 11.2 average on 12 carries for 134 yards.

Jeff is second in total team offense to Cap, while Burlingame is the defensive team leader, yielding only 365 yards to date.

Cap Cagers Nip Indians In Two Crucial Contests

Capuchino's lightweight basketball teams handed Jefferson costly twin setbacks here Tuesday, tripping the Indian 10's by 32-28 and the 20's by 30-29.

Jeff's 10's are now tied with Cap for second place with 7-2 records. San Mateo is the leader at 8-1.

Mike Orlich's 20's dropped to third place with a 6-3 mark. San Mateo also heads this division with an 8-1.

Mike Radoff, with 8 points, and Mike Brush and Tony Divirgilio, both with 6, were high scorers for the Jeff squads Tuesday.

Sonny Stoller's 19 points paced the Jeff 10's to a 49-31 romp over Burlingame last Thursday. The Indian 20's waltzed to a 55-28 victory, gunned by Rich Mortola with 16 points.

VAL'S PINMEN CLOSE GAP WITH BRISBANE

Boosted by Daly City Cleaners' sweep over front-running Brisbane Market, Val's Redwood Room bowlers climbed to within a half game of the top spot Tuesday night in the torrid DC-Colma League.

The valiant Valmen shoveled Prudential Insurance deeper into the cellar with a shutout win, while the Brisbaners went cold and were steamed and flattened by the laundry legions.

Carmona Chemical, blanking Lou Amrofell, replaced the losers in the third spot of the standings. Only other whitewash registered was Edisco over the orchidmen from Joe's Nursery.

Triumphing by 2-1 margins were Thur Meats over the 101 Clubbers, Jack's Inn over Globe Tavern (minus Sputnik), Giannini Market over United Meats, and Vince & Fred outgassing Don's Standard Station.

Brisbane's 0-3 loss was the first shutout suffered by the defending champs this season.

Top rollers for the evening were Irv Açhziger of Don's, a 229 high game, and Len Ghigliazza, Carmona, a 593 series.

Colma Eighth Graders Lose To Blingum, 14-6

Colma's luckless eighth grade footballers dropped their fourth Peninsula Intermediate League contest last week, falling to a comeback Burlingame team 14-6.

Jim Schafer's Trojans led at the halftime via Bob Miller's 20-yard pass to Mike Tarens, a second quarter tally.

The invaders stormed ahead in the third period, 7-6, then rolled to their final score midway in the fourth stanza.

Schafer liked the efforts of David Miyashiro, Ron Montoya and Sam Ennon, in addition to the steady play of Miller and Tarens.

The Trojans opened the campaign by deadlocking Millbrae, 6-all. They then lost to Burlingame, 19-2; South City, 12-6, and Millbrae, 7-2.

Schafer's hopefuls were slated to host South City this Thursday afternoon.

Ram Fives Split With B'lingame

Westmoor's 10's cagers scored a 31-23 win over invading Burlingame here Tuesday but the Ram 20's lost out, 36-32.

John Wilson moved the Ram 10's to 4-6 in the Peninsula League by scoring 9 points. Center Terry Christman bagged 8.

Danny O'Connor exploded for 17 in the 20's loss. Steve Martinez was next with 8. Westmoor's 20's are 2-8 in the books.

The Ram fives entertain Hillsdale this Thursday and Capuchino next Tuesday.

HILLSDALE 11 BUMPS TRIBE FROSH, 26-0

Tallying equally by land and sky, Hillsdale's freshmen footballers rolled to a 26-0 win over Bob Watt's Jefferson yearlings in San Mateo last Thursday.

The young Knights thus climbed to a 2-1 record, while Jeff dropped even at 2-2.

Watt's forces, idle this week, conclude the campaign next Thursday at South City. The Warriors are the class of the league.

Westmoor's winless frosh, inactive last week, meet Hillsdale here this Thursday. Coach Rod Losberger was planning "some big surprises."

WINLESS W'MOOR, WARRIORS TANGLE

Westmoor's varsity gridders hope to climb out of the Peninsula League basement this Friday night when they duel winless South City at Warriorville to determine which squad will occupy the depths. The thing starts at 8 o'clock.

Pete Matisi's Daly City eleven, outclassed 28-6 by Burlingame there last week, have the incentive to lower the Industrial City forces to the bottom of the pile.

Both Hungry

The Rams are 0-4 in the PL, while South City's mark is 0-3, the last loss at the hands of Hillsdale, 27-7.

Greg Stikes and his Blingum buddies, looking ahead to the Capuchino monstrosity this week, had too much savvy and speed for the Rams.

The Panthers pushed across two first quarter tallies, leading 21-0 at the half, and 28-0 going into the fourth quarter. Dave Simons pitched 20 yards to Larry Harper for the only Ram outburst.

Matisi's youngsters sorely missed the offensive punch of Larry Schoenfeldt, a 205-pound halfback who makes them go. Larry is out for the season due to a blood clot on his thigh.

Westmoor last week wound up with only 98 net yards rushing and passing. The Rams couldn't get beyond midfield in the first half.

Halfbacks Busy

Leo Wyrick and Bob Roller, halfbacks, shouldered the carrying load. They hauled the hide 23 times between them.

Matisi, conceding that this first varsity year for Westmoor isn't so bad as the record indicates, thinks Burlingame will be "way outclassed" by Cap this Friday.

As for South City, the head man knows it's a tossup. Citing Jefferson's uprising against Capuchino, Matisi knows his team can overcome inexperience via "desire."

Especially so again punchless South City, a team that has scored only one touchdown in three league games.

Westmoor Varsity Wins Peninsula X-Country Title

Ernie Ribera's Westmoor High varsity cross country squad captured the Peninsula League championship Thursday by downing runnerup Jefferson in a fierce final on the Ram course by a count of 23-35.

John Blake heroed the clinch win for the unbeaten Rams, giving them a spotless 7-0 season record. Blake won the 1.91 miles jaunt in 10:06, breaking the course mark.

Don Snider of Jeff blazed for a second place finish, but Westmoor's Bruce Ryner, Phil De-La Fuente and Ed Dowdall came up with inspiring efforts for key points.
